

COUNTRY BOY KEEN FOR FREE BICYCLES

Youths From Rural Districts Show Enthusiasm in Ledger Contests

GIRLS, TOO, WANT BIKES

Who ever said the city boy was more wide awake than the country boy? Here's somebody who'll say he isn't. The Public Ledger's mailman. The Public Ledger's office is getting every day with a mail bag that is getting heavier and heavier. And do you know whose fault it is? The country boy's!

office and in that way it's easy to tell just how wide awake they really are. Just at this moment it looks as though it's almost going to be a draw as to the number of Black Beauties that go to out-of-town boys and to those who live in Philadelphia.

Men Going Away To-morrow Will Want Their New Clothing in a Hurry

WHERE haste is essential the matchless facilities of this Men's Clothing Store are brought into striking prominence. The most extensive and best-selected collection of Men's Clothing in Philadelphia is right before your eyes. Tables piled high, and show cases full of garments that are veritable masterpieces of the tailors' art. There are Stein-Bloch Suits; Hart, Schaffner & Marx Suits, "Alco" Suits, "Wickham" Suits and Suits from scores of other dependable sources of supply. Hundreds of styles, hundreds of fabrics—and every size that a man could ask for.

Plenty of salesmen to give efficient, satisfactory service. Prices—as every man knows—are as low as good Clothing can be sold for.

While Prices, as a Rule, Average One-third Less Than Last Year, Many of These Special Groups Are Marked at One-half Last Year's Prices.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Stein-Bloch Suits are $40.00 to $67.50. "Alco," "Wickham" and other dependable makes, $30.00 to $62.50. Most important of the special groups—

Blue Serge Suits $25

Suits of all-wool blue serge, in smart styles for men and young men. Unusually fine Suits at a price that would have been considered remarkably low, even in pre-war days. Sizes for regular, stout, short, tall and slender men.

"Alco" Spring Suits $30

One of the greatest factors in establishing new lower price levels for men's Clothing was the introduction of these fine all-wool Suits, carefully tailored—the "Alco" way—to sell at $50.00.

Suits With 2 Pairs Trousers $27.50 and $34.50

Of herringbones, tweeds and blue serge, in the season's smartest single- and double-breasted styles, as well as in conservative models.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Suits of new herringbone weaves in several handsome shades—$45.00.

"Alco" Suits of unfinished worsted, handsomely tailored at $47.50. Similar grades were double this price last year.

"Alco" Blue Serge Suits, smart looking and handsomely tailored; in practically all sizes—unusual value at $36.50.

Separate Trousers—stripes, mixtures and plain-color fabrics. Excellent made. At these low prices—$4.50, $5.50 and $6.50.

Men Are Coming Back to Buy More of These Shirts at $1.50

At this single low price, we have grouped many lines, thereby making an assortment which includes any pattern or color a man could wish for. Many men who had selected from this collection before, are returning to buy more—for Shirts such as these are rarely found at this price—$1.50.

Muslin Night Shirts—$1.50

A special purchase from a prominent manufacturer.

Men Save One-third by This Purchase of Fine Sennit Hats at $2.25

A fortunate purchase brings these fine IMPORTED Sennit Hats here to sell at this low price. Several hundred in the lot—all brand-new and in three correct 1921 shapes. Of fine Sennit straw, with the easy-fitted, ventilated band. Men must be early for these—$2.25.

"Wickham" Sennit Straw Hats, matchless at $2.65

Genuine South American Panama Hats, now $3.95

Fine Leghorn Hats, brown or black bands—$1.95

Summer Hats and Caps, of silk, mohair, Palm Beach cloth, crash and duck—$1.50 to $4.00.

Last-Minute Haberdashery Needs of Men

—Can be quickly and readily satisfied just inside the corner door at Eighth and Market Streets, where may be seen unusually complete stocks of—

Four-in-Hands—50c to $5

Bat-wing bows—50c to $2.50

Soft Collars—25c to 50c

Leather Belts—50c to $2.00

Suspenders—75c to $1.50

Belt Buckles—$2 to $8.50

The Finest Fruits from all over the world are always to be found at the store of Henry R. Hallowell & Son. Whether they be Melons from South Africa, Cherries from California or our own local Strawberries, you will recognize the delicious flavor of carefully selected fruit.

Elvora Squan

HAVE you seen the delightful hand-painted Gift Baskets of Fruit at the store of Henry R. Hallowell & Son, Broad Street below Chestnut? Or, maybe, you have been the happy recipient of one of these baskets. If so, you know what an enjoyable gift they make. They are laden with all the finest fruit obtainable—delicious California Pears, juicy King Tangerine Oranges, sweet Georgia Peaches, huge Black and luscious White Cherries from California—all of which are cunningly arranged to give the most pleasing artistic color effects, blending charmingly with the beautiful spring colors of the painted baskets. To people outside of Philadelphia these baskets will come as a particularly pleasing surprise, as Hallowell's guarantee perfect delivery to all places within 100 miles of this city.

IF AFTER the warm days of last week, you are looking for some attractive little wash frocks for your summer wardrobe, you will be delighted with the lovely display of dresses at the Blum Store, 1310 Chestnut street. They are reasonably priced, and I am sure that you will want. There are: practical gingham of various plaids, checks and colors, well designed and good looking; linens which are remarkable value, modishly cut and in all the popular summer shades; dainty dotted swiss dresses (one of dark blue with a white cut and cleverly trimmed with white and cleverly and attractively); and lastly, a lot of all the beautiful fluffy organdies in any color you could wish, always so charming and cool for the warm summer afternoons and evenings.

THE Supreme Graduation Gift for a girl is, of course, the "Polished Girdle Diamond" sold exclusively by the house of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company. But, besides this, there are many other gifts of beauty and utility which may be found at this store. The marvelously designed wrist watches of exquisite workmanship, with wrist bands of gold or silver cloth ribbon make a very suitable and much appreciated gift. Then there are the overnight bags, very smart looking and fitted with utility which may be of the toilet. And, speaking of toilet articles, have you seen Bailey's beautiful enameled sets? For a less expensive gift I should suggest one of those lovely leather sets, which you could give with something more practical than the umbrella with leather straps are both useful and good looking.

ASSORTED Caramels, seven different kinds, all the flavors and combinations that you like best are being sold as a week-end special at the Kruse Stores, 102 South Eleventh street, just two doors below Chestnut, and 4903 Baltimore avenue, for 40 cents a pound, reduced to 30 cents a pound, while the Butter Creams are only 50 cents. You will appreciate Kruse's Pink and Blue Boxes of chocolates at one dollar. Mail orders should be sent to the Baltimore Avenue store.
